

ROLLS ROYCE SILVER SPUR

1997 Rolls-Royce Silver Spur – A Distinguished Example of Grace, Provenance, and Preservation
Presenting a truly refined example of the legendary 1997 Rolls-Royce Silver Spur, an automobile that embodies timeless British craftsmanship and understated luxury. This exceptional vehicle is more than transportation—it is an experience, steeped in elegance and heritage.

Delivered new in 1997 to its first owner in Zurich, this Silver Spur was registered for use in Switzerland but belonged to a Monaco-based gentleman, who maintained the car with discretion and pride. In 2005, it remained within principled hands, passing to its second owner—also residing in Monaco—further enhancing its exclusive lineage. By 2014, the Spur found a meticulous new custodian in Germany, where it has remained in outstanding condition.

Accompanied by a full binder of service records and invoices, this Rolls-Royce stands as a testament to conscientious ownership and thorough maintenance. Every detail, from mechanical servicing to cosmetic care, has been documented and preserved.

With its stately silhouette, lavish leather interior, and hand-polished wood veneers, the Silver Spur offers the sublime driving experience only a Rolls-Royce can deliver. The silky V8 engine hums with quiet authority, while the ride remains effortlessly smooth—a hallmark of the marque.

Rarely does a car of this caliber, with such documented provenance and exceptional care, come to market. Whether for the collector or the connoisseur, this Silver Spur is an invitation to own not just a classic Rolls-Royce, but a story of sophistication and stewardship.
