

MASERATI GRANTURISMO MC STRADALE

2012 Maserati Granturismo MC Stradale with only 38.000 km Experience automotive elegance and thrilling performance with this stunning 2012 Maserati GranTurismo MC Stradale, boasting just 38,000 km on the odometer. Designed for true driving enthusiasts, the MC Stradale represents the pinnacle of Maserati's racing heritage combined with luxurious sophistication. Powered by a robust 4.7-liter V8 engine producing an exhilarating 451 horsepower, it accelerates with effortless grace, accompanied by the unmistakable Maserati exhaust note. Its aerodynamic enhancements and extensive carbon fiber elements — including the hood, mirrors, wing, door handles, and interior trim — give it an aggressive yet refined edge that turns every drive into an event. These premium carbon fiber components go beyond standard specifications, making this particular MC Stradale even more distinctive and desirable. Further enhancing its track-ready character, this example features a professionally fitted roll cage, racing harnesses, and ultra-rare seats sourced from the iconic Ferrari Enzo. The rear seats have been removed to reduce weight and emphasize the car's motorsport pedigree. Stopping power is delivered by high-performance Brembo carbon-ceramic brakes, ensuring exceptional control on road or track. Meticulously maintained and owned by a Maserati Mechanic and later owned by the Lamborghini specialist in Italy, this low-mileage GranTurismo MC Stradale features a pristine interior in premium Alcantara and leather, carbon fiber accents throughout, and advanced driving features. Perfectly blending Italian luxury with track-inspired dynamics, it stands as an exceptional choice for those seeking exclusivity, style, and exhilarating performance.
